

A1 Course Content

This is a beginner's course. You will learn to use German in everyday situations.

You will learn the following:

| Grammar:                          | Conversation:                       | Vocabulary:               |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| • Conjugation Of Regular Verbs    | • Pronunciation Rules               | • The Alphabet            |
| • The Nominative                  | • How To Introduce Yourself         | • Colors                  |
| • Numbers                         | • How To Make Appointments          | • Number                  |
| • Gender Rules                    | • Using Public Transport            | • Family                  |
| • Plural                          | • Looking For Apartments            | • Body                    |
| • Irregular Verbs                 | • Asking For / Giving Directions    | • Clothing                |
| • Formal Salutation               | • How To Say The Time And Date      | • At home                 |
| • Word Order Of Main Clauses      | • Doctor's Visit                    | • Food & Beverages        |
| • Separable And Inseparable Verbs | • How To Order Food In A Restaurant | • Animals                 |
| • Modal Verbs                     |                                     | • Professions             |
| • Negation                        |                                     | • Weather                 |
| • How To Form Questions           |                                     | • Leisure Time Activities |
| • Conjunctions                    |                                     | • Emotions & Adjectives   |
| • The imperative                  |                                     | • Countries & Nations     |
|                                   |                                     | • Means of Transport      |

Email writing:

- Practice of 100 formal & Informal E-mail and fill out registration forms.

Preparation for the Max Mueller Bhavan – Goethe Institute International Certification A1 Exam.

| After completing the course, you will be able to                                 | After completing the course, you will be able to   |
|--|--|
| * Accomplish simple tasks and understand everyday phrases and simple expressions | * Plentiful speaking and listening activities, including situational exercises and interaction |
| * Use basic expressions in daily situations                                      | * writing practice: emails, texts, short messages.   |
| * Introduce yourself and other people  | * Introduction to German culture   |
| * Ask and answer basic questions with confidence                                 | * Information about life, Jobs, and Universities in Germany                                    |